Tuscan Style Townhouse

This Tuscan-style townhouse is in a slightly elevated position on the North-facing slope of Nail Can Hill. Both bedrooms have a ceiling fan, and built-in-robe: the master's is walk-in style. The large open living space with polished boards looks out to the front courtyard and side verandahs. Gas heating and a reverse-cycle split system heater/cooler will keep you comfy all-year round. The centrally-located kitchen includes a dishwasher, gas cooktop, and electric oven. The full bathroom is separate from the toilet, and the remote control garage has internal access. This stylish townhouse is the front one of two on the block and is located approximately midway between Albury & Lavington CBD's. Nearby are the natural beauty of the surrounding hills, a child care centre, Albury TAFE, and Glen Park. Pets are not permitted.
